BRITISH STANDARDS INSTITUTION

Incorporated by Royal Charter

28 VICTORIA STREET, LONDON, S.W.1

Telegrams : Standards, Sowest, London.

Telephone : Abbey 3333

THIS BRITISH STANDARD having been approved by the Iron and Steel Industry Committee and endorsed by the Chairman of the Engineering Divisional Council, was published under the authority of the General Council on the 6th April, 1945.

The Institution desires to call attention to the fact that this Specification does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract.

In order to keep abreast of progress in the Industries concerned, British Standards are subject to periodical review. Suggestions for improvements will be recorded and in due course brought to the notice of the Committees charged with the revision of the standards to which they refer.

A complete list of British Standards, numbering over one thousand, indexed and cross-indexed for reference, together with a list of new standards in preparation will be found in the Institution's Yearbook, price 2s. 0d. post free.

British Standards are revised, when necessary, either by the issue of amendment slips or revised editions. It is important that users of British Standards should ascertain that they are in possession of the latest amendments or edition.

Users wishing to be kept informed of any alteration to this Standard should notify Publications Department of the Institution, giving the number and title of the Standard.

SPECIAL NOTE

B.S. Handbook No. 3 contains a summary of 164 British Standards for Building Materials and Components (price 12s. 6d.).
