

Textiles — Determination of formaldehyde — Method for the determination of total and free (water extraction method)
formaldehyde using chromotropic acid

ICS 59.080.01

Confirmed January 2010

Committees responsible for this British Standard

The preparation of this British Standard was entrusted by Technical Committee TCI/80, Chemical testing of textiles, upon which the following bodies were represented.

- Association of Consulting Scientists
- Association of Suppliers to the British Clothing Industry
- British Apparel & Textile Confederation
- British Carpet Manufacturers Association Ltd.
- British Retail Consortium
- British Textiles Technology Group
- British Measurement & Testing Association
- Co-Operative Union
- Home Laundering Consultative Council
- Laboratory of the Government Chemist
- SATRA Technology Centre
- UK Cleaning Products Industry Association
- Textile Institute
- Woolmark Company

This British Standard, having been prepared under the direction of the Sector Policy and Strategy Committee, was published under the authority of the Standards Policy and Strategy Committee on 17 May 2002

© BSI 17 May 2002

Amendments issued since publication

Amd. No.	Date	Comments

The following BSI references relate to the work on this British Standard Committee reference TCI/80
Draft for comment 01/122797 DC