The European Standard EN 1433:2002, with the incorporation of amendment A1:2005, has the status of a British Standard

ICS 93.080.30

National foreword

This British Standard is the official English language version of EN 1433:2003, including amendment A1:2005 and Corrigendum September 2004.

EN 1433 is a candidate “harmonized” European Standard and fully takes into account the requirements of the European Commission mandate M118 “Wastewater engineering products”, given under the EU Construction Products Directive (89/106/EEC), and intended to lead to CE marking. The date of applicability of EN 1433 as a harmonized European Standard, i.e. the date after which this standard may be used for CE marking purposes, is subject to an announcement in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

The Commission in consultation with Member States have agreed a transition period for the co-existence of harmonized European Standards and their corresponding national standard(s). It is intended that this period will comprise a period, usually nine months after the date of availability of the European Standard, during which any required changes to national regulations are to be made, followed by a further twelve-month period for the implementation of CE marking. At the end of this co-existence period, the national standard(s) will be withdrawn.

EN 1433 is the subject of transitional arrangements agreed under the Commission mandate. In the UK, there are no corresponding national standards.

The start and finish of text introduced or altered by CEN amendment is indicated in the text by tags A1 A1. Tags indicating changes to CEN text carry the number of the CEN amendment. For example, text altered by CEN amendment A1 is indicated by A1 A1.

The UK participation in its preparation was entrusted to Technical Committee B/505, Wastewater engineering.

A list of organizations represented on B/505 can be obtained on request to its secretary.
