Part 2: Symbol originals

The European Standard EN 60417-2:1999, with the incorporation of amendment A1:2002, has the status of a British Standard

ICS 01.080.20; 01.080.40;29.020

National foreword

This British Standard is the English language version of EN 60417-2:1999, including amendment A1:2002. It is identical with IEC 60417-2:1998, including amendment A1:2000. This Standard together with Part 1, Overview and application, supersedes BS 6217:1981 which is withdrawn.

The amendment by which each page of the European Standard was introduced is indicated by an extension to the shoulder heading at the top of the page (e.g. EN 60417-2:1999/A1:2002]. Where no such extension appears, the page is part of the original European Standard.

The UK participation in its preparation was entrusted to Technical Committee GEL/3, Documentation and Graphical Symbols, which has the responsibility to:

- aid enquirers to understand the text;
- present to the responsible international/European committee any enquiries on the interpretation, or proposals for change, and keep the UK interests informed;
- monitor related international and European developments and promulgate them in the UK.

A list of organizations represented on this committee can be obtained on request to its secretary.

From 1 January 1997, all IEC publications have the number 60000 added to the old number. For instance, IEC 27-1 has been renumbered as IEC 60027-1. For a period of time during the change over from one numbering system to the other, publications may contain identifiers from both systems.
