Foreword

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards bodies (ISO member bodies). The work of preparing International Standards is normally carried out through ISO technical committees. Each member body interested in a subject for which a technical committee has been established has the right to be represented on that committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work. ISO collaborates closely with the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC) on all matters of electrotechnical standardization.

Draft International Standards adopted by the technical committees are circulated to the member bodies for voting. Publication as an International Standard requires approval by at least 75 % of the member bodies casting a vote.

International Standard ISO 6054-2 was prepared by Technical Committee ISO/TC 31, Tyres, rims and valves, Sub-Committee SC 10, Cycle, moped, motorcycle tyres and rims.

This second edition cancels and replaces the first edition (ISO 6054-2 : 1986): clause 7, figures 3 and 4, and tables 5 and 6 are new, while clause 8, and tables 3 and 7 are modified. The word "scooter" is no longer used.

ISO 6054 consists of the following parts, under the general title Motorcycle tyres and rims (Code-designated series) — Diameter codes 4 to 12:

- Part 1: Tyres
- Part 2: Rims

NOTE — ISO 4249-3, Motorcycle tyres and rims (Code designated series) — Part 3: Rims complement ISO 6054-2 for larger tyre sizes.

ISO 5751-3 : 1988, Motorcycle tyres and rims (metric series) — Part 3: Rims for tyres of series 100, 90, 80, 70 and 60 is a parallel document in the metric series.

Annex A forms an integral part of this part of ISO 6054.
