Foreword

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards bodies (ISO member bodies). The work of developing International Standards is carried out through ISO technical committees. Every member body interested in a subject for which a technical committee has been authorized has the right to be represented on that committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work.

Draft International Standards adopted by the technical committees are circulated to the member bodies for approval before their acceptance as International Standards by the ISO Council.

International Standard ISO 6664 was developed by Technical Committee ISO/TC 34, Agricultural food products, and was circulated to the member bodies in May 1981.

It has been approved by the member bodies of the following countries :

Brazil	Ireland	Romania
Canada	Israel	South Africa, Rep. of
Czechoslovakia	Korea, Rep. of	Spain
Egypt, Arab Rep. of	Peru	Tanzania
Ethiopia	Philippines	Turkey
Hungary	Poland	USSR
India	Portugal	Yugoslavia

The member bodies of the following countries expressed disapproval of the document on technical grounds :

France
