Principles for the provision of information and advice to individuals to support independent living – Code of practice

A man and a woman are sitting on a dark wooden bench with three light-colored cushions. They are seen from behind, looking towards a large, bold, black word 'Future' mounted on a plain white wall. The man is wearing a blue and white striped shirt and jeans, while the woman is wearing an orange top and a patterned belt. Two shopping bags, one blue and one white, are on the floor next to the bench. The scene is set in a minimalist, brightly lit space with a white pillar on the right.
